Introduction

The readers may rest assured that this is no money-making scheme; the nature of the work is such that no full compensation for labor and expenses can be expected. The task to compile this record, just entering into the fifth generation, the amount of time, labor and expenses involved in the preparation like this can only be imagined by those who have undertaken such work. We, however, will consider ourselves well rewarded if the result of the labor will be appreciated by the many readers of this family's.

Many letters have been written in order to collect the material from family records. Most all families have answered when we had made our first application in such work. Although when we had to ask for the second and third correction, of which some we never received an answer, while others were great help to us of which we wish to extend our hearty thanks to all, so willingly and generously contributed of their time, information and help in any form in compiling of this work.

You will find many words that are abbreviated, such as in the names of the months; D. for deaths; B. for born, and so on.

Retrospective View of the Borntrager 1455600 Family

Daniel J. Borntrager, who was born in Somerset Co., Pa., on Jan. 9, 1842, is in the fifth generation from Martin Borntrager, who was born in Switzerland and came to America on the ship Sally John Osman, and arrived at Philadelphia, Pa., on Oct. 5, 1767, bringing with him his 3 sons.

Daniel's father's name was John. He was born in Somerset Co., Pa., March 10, 1805, who later moved with their family of 5 sons and 3 daughters, namely Christian, Joseph, Magdalena, John, Barbara, Daniel, Manass and Anna, and son from his second wife, named Isaac, to Lagrange Co., Ind., where Daniel then grew to manhood and married Dec. 8, 1861, to Mary Hochstetter who was born in Elkhart Co., Ind., lived in Ind. until March 23, 1891, when they left the state of Ind., traveling by train, seeking for a home in Kansas, arriving at Hutchinson, Kansas, on the Rock Island R. R. The next evening, March 24, where his son, Jonas and son-in-law, Mose C. Borntrager had come to meet them with the wagon and a buggy, to bring them out to their homes. The ground was covered with a 4-inch snow. There were 10 in the group—grandfather and wife and 6 children, Rudolph being married, so his wife and son, Daniel, who was 4 months old were also among them. They thought it was a long ride over the lonely prairie. There was at that time an angling road from Hutchinson to Haven of which they had about 14 miles to their home from Hutchinson. At present the angling road is all taken up, except about one mile just before you get to South Hutchinson, which leaves a mark so a person can see how the road used to be in earlier days. To this date, Mar. 24, 1956, it would be 65 years that my grandparents had come to Kansas, moved on a farm which they bought from a man by the name of Hiett. It was what they called the timber claim land, as at that time if they planted 14 acres of timber on a 160-acre farm (which is what they bought) then they didn't have to pay any taxes for 5 years or so.

They lived on this farm 31 years. Here his first wife died Feb. 17, 1916. He was married second time to Elizabeth Hochstetter June 17, 1917, and in spring of 1922 Daniel and wife, with some others, moved to Poplar Bluff, Butler Co., Mo.

Grandparents to live with his son, Rudolph, who had moved there in the fall of 1921, where Daniel died Dec. 24, 1922. His second wife died in June 1923, where these two and a daughter (Edna) of Sam R. and Lizzie Borntrager were buried near Poplar Bluff, Mo., and on Oct. 22, 1941, these three bodies were taken up by Benjamin Fam. No. 292, Dan R. B. Fam. No. 154, Dan C. B. Fam. No. 219, the driver of the car, all from Ind. The bodies were then moved to Reno Co., Kan., where they were buried in the Amish cemetery near Yoder, Kan., by the help of the relatives from around there. At about the same time there was also an Amish cemetery at Bucklin, Kan., of which the bodies were all taken up and were brought to the Partridge, Kan., district and were buried in the Amish cemetery there but I failed to get a record how many there were in all and the date when.

In 1942 the family record of Daniel J. Borntrager has been put in print. The number of families at that time were 127 families. The descendants in the first book were 624 in all. In this book there is quite an increase again, which took a lot of time and encouragement to get it this far.

A History Given by a Friend About the First Amish Moving on the Lonely Prairie

In 1883, in the fall of the year the first Amish people moved to Reno Co., Kan., from Shelby Co., Ill. It was Preacher Chris H. Miller. He went by the name of Henner Christel, and lived and died on the farm where my father-in-law, David V. Yoder lived after Chris H. Miller's death. David V. and his wife, Katie (Schrock) Yoder, lived together there on that farm for 58 years. John Nissleys lived with Henner Christel for 5 years. When Chris died, John Nissleys moved on their own farm, of which is now occupied by Bishop Leander S. Keim and wife, L. S. K. born July 19, 1877.

Then in year 1884, in the spring, Mose C. Millers, Valentine Yoders, Deacon Daniel E. Borntragers and others moved there from Ind. My uncle, Jonas D. Borntrager came to Haven, Kan.. when a boy. At the age of 23 he was married; six months later was ordained to ministry, which was Nov. 1, 1885 and June 7, 1887 to a Bishop. The first Amish in Oner Eck also moved from Shelby Co., Ill., in July 1883. The first 6 months they were together as one church. They used to drive back and forth to church with a work team hitched in a big wagon, starting before daylight at times. After six months or so, the church was divided, beings these Amish settlements were about 14 miles apart.

I think the first that were buried in Haven district were Tobias Schrocks, the parents of Peter, Mose and Soy, all deceased. Two Amish boys from an Amish church in Maryland left their homes, came here in the West to homestead a farm. One was Eli M. Yoder; the other a Noftsinger. Eli homesteaded the farm where the town of Yoder is at present. When the railroad was built through Eli got them to put in a switch about 35 rods long and he also put a Post Office in his home; so in that way this town got its name.

A Prayer

Sometimes my Heart is Burdened,
My Soul is in despair, Then I go to Jesus,
And He lifts the load of care,
Oh thou Precious Saviour, who art so kind and true
Not once has thou forsaken, But always seen me through.
And now oh Blessed Jesus,
As I Journey day by day, wilt thou gently lead me
All along thy way.
I'm longing blessed Jesus, To see thy Lovely face
I'm waiting Still awaiting
To be with you through Grace
Thank you Jesus, Thank you
You've been so good to me.
I'll never want to forget to Praise thee
Here on Earth, or in Heaven in Eternity.

A Child's Prayer

1.

Blessed Jesus meek and mild
Stoop to hear a little child
At thy feet I come to pray
Saviour cast me not away.

2.

In my childhood may I be
Tender, meek and pure like thee;
Help me every sin to leave,
Lest thy loving heart I grieve.

3.

Tender Jesus thou didst call
To thine arms the children small;
Lo, I come and humbly pray,
Saviour cast me not away.
